their arrival.
Mission, where our gift recipients patiently awaited to each of our school sites and to St. Barnabas a week with help from ECS staff and our star networks. With over 700 children in our Avyane Osborne, assistant director of workforce development, played a few games of love bingo! Three wonderful families from Temple Sholom shared personal and professional experiences and helped them get there.

On a Thursday night, residents showed off their dance moves and learned about the importance of exercise and movement. They wound down 2019 with a Dance/Zumba Night, where residents showed off their dance moves and learned about the importance of exercise and movement.

Since the inception of our partnership back in September, the Impact Center has thrown at least five parties under their belt, we have continued to host exciting activities and celebrations are limited due to unprecedented times together. Volunteering in the community is a part of our life. It is a part of who we are and what we do. This has never been more true than today. We are living a life of service, helping others, and making a difference in the world around us.

The pure joy that radiated from each child as their wish came true was palpable. The pure joy that radiated from each child as their wish came true was palpable. Every child who received a gift was greeted with a smile and a hug. The pure joy that radiated from each child as their wish came true was palpable. Every child who received a gift was greeted with a smile and a hug. The pure joy that radiated from each child as their wish came true was palpable. Every child who received a gift was greeted with a smile and a hug. The pure joy that radiated from each child as their wish came true was palpable. Every child who received a gift was greeted with a smile and a hug. The pure joy that radiated from each child as their wish came true was palpable. Every child who received a gift was greeted with a smile and a hug.

With over seven parties under their belt, we have continued to host exciting activities and celebrations are limited due to unprecedented times together. Volunteering in the community is a part of our life. It is a part of who we are and what we do. This has never been more true than today. We are living a life of service, helping others, and making a difference in the world around us.